A FAMILY REUNION.

Friday, May 11th, was a very memorable occasion to the members of the family of Mrs N F Killion, living east of the city. This date marked the 60th milestone of Mrs Killion's very useful life. It also marked the 25th birthday of her daughter, Mrs F C Blackburn. The day was spent in quilting, sewing and pleasant conversation.

Ed Benedict, living ten miles south of Marshall, came in Saturday in his usual health, but was taken very sick during the afternoon and was sent to the home of his sister, Mrs Nick Stedem, where a physician was called and pronounced the young man suffering from appendicitis. As we go to press he is reported as being very comfortable.

James Vincent of Cooper county was met by a reporter of this paper recently, who said: "I have come to Marshall to see the German-American Doctors of Kansas City now stopping at the Hotel Hurt this and next week. They made a careful X-Ray examination, disclosing the cause of my sickness for the past 7 years, which is a diseased bone of my arm, causing blood poison. I had almost given up hope until I consulted them, but am now satisfied they will cure me, and heartily recommend them to the sick of this community." 14-1f

A rebellion occurred this week at Kemper school at Boonville, caused by a young student having been expelled, which was resented by some 24 or 30 students, who demanded that he be reinstated, and upon the refusal of the principal to comply with their demands, they all left school, Ralph Duggins being the only one of the graduating class who was left. We understand, since the trouble occurred, that several of the boys have come back and apologized and resumed their studies.

A Dollar Attraction at Popular Prices—10, 20 and 30c.

Ladies Free Monday Night if accompanied by one paid 30-cent ticket.

Consumption

is robbed of its terrors by the fact that the best medical authorities state that it is a curable disease; and one of the happy things about it is, that its victims rarely ever lose hope.

You know there are all sorts of secret nostrums advertised to cure consumption. Some make absurd claims. We only say that if taken in time and the laws of health are properly observed, will heal the inflammation of the throat and lungs and nourish and strengthen the body so that it can throw off the disease.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

We have thousands of testimonials where people claim they have been permanently cured of this malady.

Sole and Gen. agents, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

HELLO CENTRAL

Give me everybody that has bad teeth and I'll fix them as good as new. Crown and Bridge work a favorite thing for this age—no use to have a plate in your mouth when you can get teeth put in without.

Teeth pulled without pain. Don't forget that I am the only cut price dentist in this part of the state, and am here to stay. All work warranted.

O'TIS TIBBETTS, Dentist
